In "Life of Love" [vol. V, p. 72], Marie-Paule wrote:

The events in the life of every being constitute the reference points, the base lines, which serve as indications so that the edifice will be well built.

The soul retains complete liberty. It can construct a masterpiece, using materials that are the solidest and of the best quality, faithfully following the divine plan; thus it will experience an extraordinary peace and agility.

Or, on the other hand, it can swerve from the path and plunge into a diabolical abyss, because Satan has also drawn up his plans. His scaffolding is based on the capital sins. The life which in appearance is a life of indulgence, weaves an imperceptible web that imprisons the soul that lets itself become entangled in it.

Yet, each soul is a PROJECT which God leaves to man to realize. It is wonderful, but what a terrible responsibility we bear! God assists in the realization of His PROJECT through events and persons that come into contact with it.

Later, in the definition of the Community of the Lady of All Peoples, Marie-Paule would specify that it will always be necessary to act in "a respect for the rights and duties of the individual, protecting his autonomy, his reputation, while at the same time holding each one responsible for his actions and their consequences."

Mother: Thus said the Lady.

Assembly: May she be blessed forever.
