In "Life of Love" [volume II, pp. 46-47], Marie-Paule wrote:

Saturday night I go to sleep and wake up at six-thirty the next morning. I had such a good night's sleep, but why did Mary not return as she had on the other nights of the week to give courses of spirituality? Everything now seems to me to be so empty!

So, I go to church a half-hour before Mass. Alone in this beautiful church of St. Paul in Scotstown, I kneel down and reflect on that wonderful week, on the nights of spiritual instruction, on the all-consuming love; and I feel very humble, for I do not merit such favors.

Suddenly, at the moment I am acknowledging my unworthiness, my nothingness, it is as if the heavens open and I "hear" directly from On-High, a little towards the right, the voice of my Love speaking to me:

"You know, my child, that my beloved Mother lived on earth and that she ascended into heaven without dying. I must tell you, today, that she has become incarnate, and that her maternal regard has alighted upon you. IT IS YOU, my child, who suffer my Passion and WHO, in the name of my beloved Mother, WILL GIVE CHRIST BACK TO THE WORLD."

Mother: Thus said the Lady.

Assembly: May she be blessed forever.
