

LITURGY OF THE KINGDOM

JANUARY 6

The Feast of the Epiphany

THIRD READING

Acclamation: From the Lord to the Lady, one single Love, one single Mystery: one single Kingdom to lead all His Creation to God.

Mother: A proclamation of the works of the Lady.

Assembly: The Lady's word is a word of truth.

Mother:

In her Christmas letter in 1988, Marie-Paule wrote:

This happiness I wish for you, this Kingdom which God offers us, this we can already live, while waiting to enjoy it eternally.

Under the weight of the Cross, the most wonderful fruit can grow, fruit which will last for all eternity. Without seeking the Cross, we can at least accept it, love it and offer it, as one offers a gift.

At the manger, let us draw close to the Child Jesus, who knew rejection and poverty, in order to give Him:

- the “gold” of our self-abandonment to His Holy will,
- the “incense” of our acts of love, and
- the “myrrh” of our sorrowful FIAT.

What riches do we not prepare for ourselves!

We are so happy to find ourselves together at our religious ceremonies because united in a common love; what will it be like when we experience eternal joys? How many times is it not remarked to us, at the end of our fraternal meetings at which Jesus, Mary and the Church receive our transports of love: “It was a day in heaven.” Well, it is heaven which the Infant God brings us. He asks us to merit it.

Mother: Thus said the Lady.

Assembly: May she be blessed forever.
