In "Le Royaume" of May-June 1995 [no. 105, p. 2], Marie-Paule wrote:

The renewal in spirituality and the renewal in Marian theology are a splendor of grace to whoever contemplates in silence and love God's plan being realized by Mary our Mother.

Through the abysses of darkness which cover the world, we are journeying towards the year 2000 while awaiting God's mercy in which will be deployed vastnesses of light and love, thanks to the Father's plan of love carried out by Mary, the Mother and Lady of All Peoples, given for our time for the renewal of the Church.

When the time comes, bringing with it the support of incontestable proofs, the renewed Church will just have to accept the Marian Work which will have been rejected, trampled down, fustigated and crucified over so many years.

Thus will it come about that the renewed Church will be to the current Church, guided by its courageous Head, what "the arrival of the Apostolic Church was to the Synagogue".

Mother: Thus said the Lady.

Assembly: May she be blessed forever.
