

LITURGY OF THE KINGDOM

The Triumph of the Immaculate Heart

FIRST READING

Reader: A reading taken from the spiritual heritage of humanity.

Assembly: From all time, Heaven has prepared the coming of the Kingdom.

Reader: Today a passage from the book “Tous ces Mystères dans le Mystère de Marie” by Raoul Auclair.

It is written:

The Virgin Mary is the one who, in her apparitions, requests and strongly insists that we recite the rosary.... Did not the Pope himself, precisely on the fiftieth anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady OF THE ROSARY, go to Fatima?

The Rosary is the weapon of combat. Now, how will these weapons we are building up through the recitation of the rosary reach the hands of the Warrior Virgin?

How? Through the CONSECRATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART.... A consecration that is total and complete.... A consecration that empties us of everything since we are offering up everything we are and all we have. And, if we have only our wretchedness to offer up – and who, in fact has anything but his wretchedness to offer up? – Well, the miserable lead of our merits, passing through the hands of the divine Alchemist, will become the pure gold able to cause the justice of God to yield, and draw from Him the gift of His mercy....

Thus, and in a very strict sense, the Immaculate Heart becomes the receptacle of the countless and almost infinite sum of our tiny “yesses”, all those freely given acts of the Aves, which will enable the WOMAN to win the victory that God, from all time, destined for her in our favor, but which she cannot win without us.

“In the end,” Our Lady OF THE ROSARY said at Fatima, “in the END, my IMMACULATE HEART will triumph.”

Reader: This was a passage from the book “Tous ces Mystères dans le Mystère de Marie” by Raoul Auclair.

Assembly: Thanks be to God.