In "Life of Love" [vol. VII, pp. 102-103], Marie-Paule wrote:

Then certain events pass before my eyes, especially the memory of the day the Lord said to me: "Your soul is of an immaculate white."...

In fact, at what moment did I receive that inspiration?

So, I look through my notes and discover, to my surprise, that it was given me on September 8, the feast of the birth of Mary.

Then there comes to my mind another event related in Life of Love.

After my Communion, I was telling Mary how happy I was to celebrate her anniversary at the foot of the altar. She at once replied: "But it is also your feast day, my child."

At that time, the words made no sense to me. When it came time to write it down, this incident came back very clearly to my mind. Out of obedience, I had to give an account of it without understanding it. I was very embarrassed to write such a statement.

Now, today, I understand the light that God is giving me.

On that September 8, 1970, when the Lord said to me: "Your soul is of an immaculate white," there occurred at the same time the birth of the true Spirit of Mary, a new and immaculate conception.

God lives in the eternal present. These revelations were already realities to Him who knows all things.

Mother: Thus said the Lady.

Assembly: May she be blessed forever.
