THE SECOND COMING OF THE IMMACULATE

September 13, 2026

Prayer of the Day

O Immaculate, twice "blessed among all women", we celebrate today your second coming among us. It was accomplished in Marie-Paule, the Lady God, Mother of the Kingdom and Mother of all souls. We want to live all the days of our life in the contemplation of your ineffable Beauty, losing ourselves ever more deeply in the Infinity of your Love. We ask you: keep us forever in the Paradise of your Heart and expand it to the dimensions of the World. Amen.

Reading from the Spiritual Heritage (True Devotion to Mary, nos. 49-50)

READER: A reading from the Spiritual Heritage of Humanity.

ALL: From the beginning, Heaven has been preparing the coming of the Kingdom.

READER: Today, passages from True Devotion to Mary by Saint Louis Marie Grignion de Montfort. It is written:

It was through Mary that the salvation of the world was begun, and it is through Mary that it must be consummated. Mary hardly appeared at all in the first coming of Jesus Christ. Today, Mary has to be made known and revealed by the Holy Spirit. God wishes to reveal and make known Mary, the masterpiece of His hands, in these latter times.

He who shall find Mary shall find life. But no one can find Mary who does not seek her; and no one can seek her who does not know her; for we cannot seek or desire someone we do not know. It is necessary then that Mary should be more than ever known. Mary must shine forth more than ever in mercy, in might and in grace in these latter times. (L.V.)

READER: They were passages from True Devotion to Mary by Saint Louis Marie Grignion de Montfort.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading (Kérizinen, 42nd message)

ACCLAMATION: In the days when History was renewed, the Son of God revealed Himself by His unparalleled words and actions. Alleluia.

PRIEST: As a Gospel today, a message from Jesus Christ to Jeanne-Louise Ramonet, the seeress at Kérizinen.

ALL: The Lord is the Light and Salvation of the world.

Jesus said:

When the world rejected God, the Father sent me to enlighten it. Presently, the world is rejecting me once again and that is why I am sending you my Mother. Her light rises in the night to lead the world to peace.

Why, then, is she the object of so much opposition? She is there for such a great mission: She is the link between God and you. She has a set place and role in the divine action whereby humanity is snatched from its sinful condition, in order to participate in divine life.

I do not want to distribute my graces all alone, but through her who then becomes the channel through which all graces pass. Thus, devotion to her is not optional; it is absolutely necessary. Think of her as my divine complement: your Co-Redemptrix. She will have a special place in the world which will force all of you to pass through her to go to God. (L.V.)

PRIEST: The Word of the Lord.

ALL: We will keep it alive in us.

Reading from the Works of the Lady (Life of Love, Appendix V, pp. 140-141)

ACCLAMATION: From the Lord to the Lady, one single Love, one single Mystery: one single Kingdom to lead all of Creation to God.

MOTHER: A proclamation of the Works of the Lady.

ALL: The word of the Lady is a word of truth.

MOTHER: In Life of Love, Appendix V, under the title "The Reincarnation", Marie-Paule wrote:

The Immaculate came into my soul, here below, borrowing my being in order to accomplish the Co-Redemption….

Incarnation: The Immaculate became incarnate a first time in "She who once was Mary" for the Redemption. Reincarnation: The Immaculate became incarnate a second time, hence reincarnate, in Paul-Marie for the Co-Redemption.

This "information" on the "reincarnation" reminds me of what I had already been foretold: "ALL THIS TO SHOW MY CHILD, THAT THERE WAS TRINITY AND TO PROVE ONCE MORE THAT THERE IS REINCARNATION." (Life of Love I, chap. 53, May 5, 1958) Who could have understood that?...

The Immaculate becoming incarnate, mystically, twice. And it has all happened without the least exaltation, without pretension, in all simplicity. So, I remain here below with my wretchedness, my poor being which no longer has anything, which is the NOTHING; and yet a nothing that has the impression of possessing everything.

All I must do now is save myself, after having collaborated in saving the world so that it might enter the Kingdom of a thousand years!

MOTHER: Thus said the Lady.

ALL: May She be blessed forever.

MARIE-PAULE'S BIRTH

September 14, 2026

Prayer of the Day

O Marie-Paule, on this holy Day of your Birth, we have assembled to pray to You, give You thanks and adore You. O You, to whom we owe everything, what could we offer You except our hearts ready to receive You? Fill them with your Presence, You, the All-Divine, the All-Love, and lead them to the Father, where You wait for us with the Mother and the Son in the unity of the Spirit. Amen.

Reading from the Spiritual Heritage (Life of Love XIV, p. 33)

READER: A reading from the Spiritual Heritage of Humanity.

ALL: From the beginning, Heaven has been preparing the coming of the Kingdom.

READER: Today, a passage from a letter by Saint Philippe Marie to Bishop Jean-Pierre van Lierde, that was published in Life of Love, volume XIV. It is written:

One cannot live close to Marie-Paule without undergoing a profound transformation. Before her, our consciences are laid bare. She knows our most secret thoughts and she draws us along in the way of perfection in a manner that is irresistible. God is giving more and more signs of the power of her intercession, through conversions and cures of all sorts.

I am not a theologian, scholar or wise man. I am just someone who is "very little", the littlest of all. But I am aware of what is going on here under my eyes, and I cannot refrain from telling it to you, in all simplicity, in all frankness, unstudiedly, as if speaking to my beloved Father in whom I have complete confidence.

With Marie-Paule, we have no fear of the future. The times are difficult and we are beset on all sides by the enemy. But we sense that Mary is present in her and we feel secure,

PRIEST: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

ALL: The Lord is the Light and Salvation of the world.

In honor of Marie-Paule's birth, let us listen to Mary's Magnificat which Marie-Paule made the hymn of her entire Life of Love:

"My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior.

For he has looked upon his handmaid's lowliness; behold, from now on will all ages call me blessed. The Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

His mercy is from age to age to those who fear him. He has shown might with his arm, dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart.

He has thrown down the rulers from their thrones but lifted up the lowly. The hungry he has filled with good things; the rich he has sent away empty.

He has helped Israel his servant, remembering his mercy, according to his promise to our fathers, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."

MOTHER: In Life of Love, volume I, Marie-Paule wrote:

On September 14, 1921, a beautiful day, while the sun gilds the horizon, darting forth long banners of mauve, scarlet and gold; and while the father-to-be anxiously paces up and down the room, (as is quite understandable), the first fruit of their great love arrives, a little girl weighing eight pounds.

Carried to the baptismal font by her maternal grandmother, who is her godmother, and accompanied by the oldest son Joseph, who is standing in for the absent grandfather, who is the godfather, the baby girl is given the Christian names of Marie-Paule, Cécile, Andrée.

She will be called "Marie-Paule" because her mother wants her eldest daughter to bear the beautiful name of Mary.

It was with a fervent prayer that this child, whom God has willed to give them, is consecrated to her Mother in heaven.

Many years later, Marie-Paule heard interiorly: "September 14 is the birthday of the Immaculate." [XV, p. 257] (L.V.)

PRIEST: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Maria Valtorta.

ALL: The Lord is the Light and Salvation of the world.

Jesus said to Maria Valtorta:

When you think of Mary, meditate on the long agony she suffered for thirty-three years, that was crowned at the foot of the cross. She suffered it for you.

For you, the mockery of the crowd that considered her the mother of a madman. For you, the reproaches from relatives and important persons. For you too, my seeming disavowal: "My Mother and my brothers are those who do God's will."

And yet, who accomplished the divine will more than she did? A formidable Will that imposed upon her the torture of contemplating her own Son handed over for the Passion.

For you, the weariness of joining me here and there. For you, the sacrifice of leaving her house and mingling with the crowd. For you, to have to stay in the vicinity of him who harboured betrayal in his heart. For you, the pain of hearing me accused of being possessed by the devil, of heresies. Everything, all of it for you. (L.V.)

MOTHER: In Life of Love, volume I, Marie-Paule wrote:

September 15 is the feast of the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary. As is my custom, I am there at the foot of the altar to assist at Mass and receive Communion.

I am happy. I love my Jesus, I adore Him and I speak to Him of my ideal. I am already His fiancée; my heart belongs to Him.

I meditate on the Sorrows of the Virgin Mary. Suddenly, I hear interiorly: "MY CHILD, IN HONOR OF MY SEVEN SORROWS,YOU WILL GO ON THE OPERATING TABLE SEVEN TIMES."

Somewhat disturbed, I reply: "If that is what you desire, oh Mary, I accept. It was for the salvation of souls that I had wanted to undergo that first operation, so how can I refuse to continue?" (L.V.)

Jesus sends the first seventy-two disciples on mission and gives them several instructions, among them:

If two disciples of mine, and I mean as such all those who will believe in the Christ, will gather together to ask for any just thing in my Name, that thing will be granted to them by my Father.

Because prayer is a great power, brother union is a great power, my Name is a very great infinite power and so is my presence among you. And where two or three people are gathered in my name, I shall be in the midst of them, and I will pray with them, and the Father will not refuse anything to those who pray with me….

Make your hearts pure, so that I can be with you, then pray and you will be heard.

MOTHER: A proclamation of the Works of the Lady.

ALL: The word of the Lady is a word of truth.

MOTHER: In her answer to the mother of a family who has suffered much and who expresses herself on the Army of Mary ceremonies, Marie-Paule wrote:

The more the heart of an apostle suffers from the world and its own, the more does it thirst for those spiritual meetings through which Christ radiates; and the more too does it desire those gatherings and conversations in which the life of the soul brings alive what is best, since it is involved in what is the highest and purest…

Filled with joy and peace, these witnesses of the faith that so vitalize us, make us think of what will soon be the ardor of a humanity uplifted in an excess of happiness and in the joy of the day of deliverance so long awaited….

This century of many and varied miseries, during which so many spiritual values have crumbled away one after the other, will have unwittingly prepared the way for a renewal unlike any other; for "the more evil abounds, the more does grace superabound."

Prayer of the Day

God of love and goodness, look toward us assembled here before You this day. Grant that our heart be always more open to the Mystery of your Presence. Jesus said to one of his apostles:

I want to be alone at night time. At night, my spirit gets its nourishment from the Father. Prayer, meditation and solitude are more necessary for me than material food.

Who wishes to live for the spirit, and lead others to live the same life, must disregard the flesh – I would almost say kill it – to devote all his attention to the spirit. Everybody must do that… You, too, if you really want to belong to God, that is, to the supernatural.

MOTHER: In Life of Love, Appendix V, Marie-Paule wrote:

The Lord has left me so much work to do, so many persons to console and to direct, so many problems to resolve, each day, that I have never had time to dream of or expect “indications” or signs. I ask nothing; I do not even think of asking, so busy am I with the duties of my state.

But I am faithful to my hours of prayer, even during the night. Prayer is a great boon, a great tonic, a great calm and peace!

And every day my work is a prayer because centered on God and for God, who sustains me. The more God teaches me the beauties of the supernatural, the more indistinct do earthly realities become, though I am confronted with them daily.

Sometimes I am on the go from 2:00 a.m. until 10:00 or 11:00 p.m. without respite, with amazing energy; this flows from the strength of God who is taking over in me more and more. The more we give of ourselves to God, the more He gives himself to us.

SEDUCTION BLINDS

September 18, 2026

Prayer of the Day

God of Love, see humanity imploring You. It thirsts for happiness and hungers for truth. But it has often cut the thread binding it to You, seeking distractions in empty comforts and bitter substitutes. The time has come to tear down the walls of its complacency and knock down the barriers of its isolation. Accept our prayers and make them serve the RENEWAL OF HUMANITY so that your Kingdom may come and your Glory shine. Amen.

When the people will see where the truth is found, when it will be able to recognize the true shepherds submissive to the Pope, there will be a new hope for humanity. OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE

September 19, 2026

Prayer of the Day

O Mary, You set foot on the high mountains of La Salette in France, where you wept over the state of the Church and announced the Kingdom of the Seventh Day. You also warned us of the approaching hard times. This is why we implore You: keep us very close to You, in the ardour of your Love and bring upon all peoples your Son's Reign – a Reign firmly established in the Peace of the Spirit. Amen.

READER: Today a few passages from The Secret of La Salette quoted by Marie-Paule herself in Life of Love. It is written:

"Many will abandon the faith and the number of priests and religious who will leave the true religion will be great. Among these persons, there will even be bishops..."

"Let the Pope be on his guard against those performing miracles, for the time is coming when the most astonishing wonders will take place on the earth and in the air."

"Bad books will abound on earth, and the spirits of darkness will provoke everywhere a universal laxity with regard to everything having to do with God's service."

"This will be the time of darkness; the Church will undergo a frightful crisis."

And Mary announced that after these evils there would be a time of peace. "This peace among men will not be long; twenty-five years of plentiful harvests will make them forget that the sins of men are the cause of all the sufferings which take place on earth."

As Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, he saw the city and wept over it, saying, "If this day you only knew what makes for peace, but now it is hidden from your eyes. For the days are coming upon you when your enemies will raise a palisade against you; they will encircle you and hem you in on all sides. They will smash you to the ground and your children within you, and they will not leave one stone upon another within you because you did not recognize the time of your visitation."

Then Jesus entered the temple area and proceeded to drive out those who were selling things, saying to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves.' "

And every day he was teaching in the temple area. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people, meanwhile, were seeking to put him to death, but they could find no way to accomplish their purpose because all the people were hanging on his words.

Sunday, May 15, [1977], we go to Our Lady of La Salette parish in Montreal for a celebration of the Army of Mary. Yesterday, I asked Raoul to speak during the ceremony. "In that case," he said, "I'll speak about La Salette because we'll be in the church of Our Lady of La Salette." So, at the beginning of Mass, Raoul read a part of the famous "secret of La Salette", restricting himself to that part of the "secret" which concerns the time we are in.

We all know the fight that was waged against the "secret" given by the Blessed Virgin to Mélanie, the seeress, because in it the Virgin Mary denounced the disorders that were to come about in the Church. Since then, silence has been imposed concerning the message at La Salette. The conspiracy of silence has been so successful that it is almost certain that the warnings of Our Lady of La Salette were never spoken aloud in a church. And lo and behold, without any premeditation, by a simple combination of circumstances, this has been done.

Raoul told me that, in reading Mary's words, he suddenly had the powerful feeling of how solemn that moment was. For the first time, probably, the "secret" was being proclaimed in a church, and in a church dedicated to Our Lady of La Salette.
